

Sermon Notes

Why justification matters

Job 29-31

1. What do we see in Job's final speech?

- a. Job longs for his past friendship with God (ch.29)
- b. Job laments his perceived separation from God (ch.30)
- c. Job pleads his innocence before God (ch.31)

2. How does this final speech give wisdom to the suffering believer?

- Job's speech helps us understand the suffering of our Saviour
- Job's speech shows us the importance of knowing our justification
