

GOSPEL
PATRONS / UK

Because God is still writing history...

What is a Gospel Patron?

Throughout the Bible* and across history, we repeatedly see a remarkable pattern: whenever God raises up ministers, evangelists, teachers, translators and missionaries to proclaim the life changing good news of the gospel, He also raises up patrons – partners who stand with them so their God given mission can flourish.

By God's grace, William Tyndale was able to translate and print the bible into English because a courageous cloth merchant named Humphrey Monmouth chose to partner with him.

Monmouth didn't just fund the work – he opened his home for Tyndale's protection, supported his journey to find a printer in Germany, and even used his ships to smuggle the then illegal Bibles back into the UK.

We often celebrate heroes of the faith like Tyndale – and rightly so. But behind every frontline ministry is a Gospel Patron whose faithfulness made the mission possible. Their stories remind us that the work of God usually advances through partnership and they invite each of us to ask:

What part can I play?

Who are Gospel Patrons UK?

Gospel Patrons UK is a unique community. We don't fundraise, distribute grants, or tell people where to give. Instead, we exist to equip and encourage Christians to steward their time, talents and treasure in ways that are sacrificially generous and deeply relational, so that biblically faithful gospel ministry can flourish.

Anyone, regardless of income, can be a gospel patron. Our welcoming networks bring together believers who may carry a greater responsibility in resourcing gospel work, or whose career trajectory means they are likely to end up stewarding more resources. If you want to think carefully and biblically about your giving, you have found the right people*.

We are peers and mentors: men and women who want to share, learn and encourage each other to keep playing our part in a joyful adventure of faith.

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Matthew 28:19–20

*We ask people not to attend our events to network for fundraising or business purposes.

Get involved ↓

There are so many ways to get involved, we'd encourage you to try a few and engage regularly as this can help maintain focus – we find that people are most impacted by being in community with like-minded people, so please do feel warmly encouraged to visit one of our fully hosted quarterly events.

but the worries of this life, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for other things come in and choke the word, making it unfruitful.

Mark 4:19
